Welcome to Health Advocate
You have complete access to our comprehensive Core Health Advocacy service at no cost, courtesy of the University of Pennsylvania. Our program is designed to help you and your family navigate healthcare and insurance-related issues, resolving problems that you may encounter.

This guide provides an overview of how Health Advocate works and the many ways we can help you. Remember, if you have a question or need assistance, we’re a phone call away. We look forward to serving you.

We are here to help you
During your first call, you will be assigned a Personal Health Advocate (PHA) who will begin helping you right away.

PHAs are typically registered nurses, supported by medical directors and benefits and claims specialists. They’ll help cut through the red tape and help with complex conditions, find specialists, address eldercare issues, clarify insurance coverage, work on claims denials, help negotiate medical bills and get to the heart of your issue.

Medical Claims Problems

Sara had been trying to get coverage for a recent hospital stay. Health Advocate found a coding mistake on the bill and worked with her doctor, hospital and health plan to correct it so the claim could be reprocessed, saving her $10,000.

Complex Healthcare Issues

Jeanna’s son was diagnosed with a rare cancer and needed comprehensive medical care. Health Advocate found doctors, specialists and a treatment center and helped schedule appointments.

Insurance-related Problems and Red Tape

Gina’s husband needed surgery for a life-threatening condition, but the paperwork approving the procedures got “lost in the system.” Health Advocate tracked down and coordinated the paperwork between the doctor, insurance plan and hospital and helped convince the insurance company to permit a prompt operation.

Eldercare Problems

Alan needed services for his mother who lived out-of-state and had a number of medical and mental health problems. Health Advocate found home healthcare and subsequently a nursing home with an Alzheimer’s unit for his mother’s long-term care.
