As part of National Retirement Security Month, the University of Pennsylvania has partnered with TIAA to offer a series of exclusive webinars to Penn employees. These recorded webinars are led by licensed professionals and are designed to help employees find more financial confidence in the face of today’s economic challenges by learning more about saving, retirement, social security and more. The topics are as follows:

She’s Got It: A woman’s guide to saving and investing – Available until 1/27/2023
Financial knowledge to get started on the right foot. Start caring for your financial well-being now. It’s never too early to begin saving, and the sooner you do, the more prepared you may be down the road. We’ll share financial strategies:
- Understand your income and your outflow, and how to balance them to your advantage
- Discover how saving a little now can help you later on
- Make a plan for your finances and your financial future
These strategies can benefit anyone and all are welcome to join this session.

Postcards from the future: A Woman’s guide to financially ever after – Available until 1/30/2023
Financial knowledge for women nearing retirement. Retirement is not as far away as you think! Learn what you can do to help plan for your retirement dream to come true on schedule. We’ll share retirement strategies:
- Identify your “retirement vision”—how much you’ll need and when
- Learn steps you can take that may get your finances on track to help reach your ideal retirement in 10 to 15 years
- Learn the unique characteristics of retirement plans from 403(b)s to IRAs to annuities to help you determine which work best for you

Social Security Benefits Planning – Available until 2/1/2023
Social Security will likely play a significant role in building your retirement income. Learn the basics about Social Security including:
- Eligibility
- How to apply
- How your benefit is calculated
- Strategies for claiming benefit

The Informed Investor: Navigating volatility – Available until 2/2/2023
How smart investors ride out market volatility. What’s the best way to handle market ups and downs? This seminar offers best practices and actionable steps to help investors steer through stormy markets to help stay on the path to financial security. It will cover topics such as how rising interest rates impact the various asset classes.

You can access the recorded webinars at https://webinars.on24.com/client/UOP2022.